Camp is in our roots, it's how we got our start. Each member of our expert team was once a camper themselves, which is why we understand first-hand the emotional connection camp merch can bring—and that's what helps us make the unforgettable experience of attending camp last forever. In 2019, we became a part of Genumark, Canada's leading distributor of promotional products. Becoming part of this fantastic company only enhanced our dedication to creating the best tuck shop programs for our camps, so reach out with any program needs – we are here to help!

(866) 728-0787

Jim Gallup has provided quality logoed apparel and promotional products to the camping industry ON TIME, for 36+ years. Is it price, brand, quality, ease of ordering, or vendor trust and loyalty that drives your product/vendor choices? We ask that you allow Four Iron the opportunity to quote on the staff shirts, hoodies, basic and fashion tri blend t-shirts, jackets, blankets/towels, drinkware, and all categories of promotional products. Send us information on the products, styles, brands, and colors you are looking for and we will reply by email with direct links on in stock products/colors/sizes. We suspended our general website last year and now we source and suggest specific brands and colors that really are AVAILABLE TODAY. Please contact Jim by phone or email with product questions and vector art or logo concepts, so we can provide pricing, product availability, and virtual mock-ups for your review.

Dear Scout is the first and only camp-specific Employee Assistance Program, helping you support your staff by connecting them to licensed mental health professionals with camp experience. We know that camp staff aren't "leaving their problems at the gate," so Dear Scout provides on-demand, one-on-one teletherapy sessions to your counselors during the summer, while they're working for you. Whether they need a little help dealing with life transitions or an outside resource for coping with the stressors or working at camp, our clinicians take the burden off your leadership team and help your staff focus on being their best selves. It's a great benefit to talk about in your recruiting, too! Dear Scout is an ideal complement to all the other things you do to foster a supportive environment in which your camp staff thrive.
